

The New Jersey "Do not call" law together with the National Registry system has given my wife and I back our private lives to spend quiet evenings together uninterrupted by bothersome solicitors, many of whom are scam artists preying on senior citizens and the unsophisticated consumer. Do not change it.